DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is in response to Applicant's response filed December 18, 03. Claim 1 has been amended. New claim 16 has been added.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 3. Claims 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Masahiro (JP 86638).

Claim 16:

Masahiro discloses a device installation apparatus for a mobile body comprising:

- a. A console box (housing for television receiver) (fig. 3) in a position sandwiched between a plurality of seats within the mobile body, wherein the console box installs at least one desired device (television receiver)
- b. A guide rail 4 to engage the console box in the mobile body, such that the console box moves in longitudinal direction within the mobile body along the guide rail.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 5. Claims 1-3 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Masahiro (JP 86638).

Claim 1:

Masahiro discloses device installation apparatus for a mobile body comprising:

a. An installing means, storage 5, which is provided in a position in the middle of two columns of vehicle seats, and is able to disposed therein a desired device (fig. 5)

- a hardi to . .

b. A guide means, rail 4, for movable guiding the installing means along the longitudinal direction of the mobile body.

The reference fails to show the driver and the assistant's driver seats. However, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art that the position of the device in Masahiro is sandwiched between the driver and the driver's assistant seats because it is located in the middle of the two columns of the vehicle passenger seats.

Claim 2:

The guide means 4 comprises a plurality of engaging portion for engaging the installing means at a plurality of the predetermined different positions, and wherein, when the installing means is moved based on guiding by the guide means, the installing means being engaged with anyone of the plurality of engaging portions. That is, the engaging portions are at infinite positions along the rail.

Claim 3:

The engaging portions are at infinite positions along the rail 4 and are provided in the guide means such that engaging portions correspond to positions of seats disposed in the mobile body.

Claim 13:

The installing means 5 and the guide means 4 are disposed on a roof portion within the mobile body.

6. Claims 4-12 and 14-15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
